

Call for CVs – International Development Professionals

Duty Stations – Burkina Faso, Mali, Niger, Democratic Republic of Congo, Central African Republic, Philippines, Haiti, U.S.

International Emergency and Development Aid (IEDA Relief), is a Not-for-profit organization specializing in international development and humanitarian assistance. IEDA Relief is a certified 501(c)3 tax-exempt organization. The mission of IEDA Relief is to alleviate the suffering of vulnerable people by tackling the underlying causes of poverty so that people can become self-sufficient and achieve full potential. IEDA Relief works to empower communities in conflict torn and disaster affected areas, to save lives, sustain human dignity, and to restore healthy communities. IEDA Relief serves vulnerable people in need, regardless of their belief, culture, language, custom, sect, ethnicity and/ or political affiliation.

IEDA Relief is looking for a range of international development professionals for potential short and long term assignments (paid and internships) on various programs in Burkina Faso, Mali, Niger, DRC, CAR, Philippines, Haiti, and the US ranging from program implementers and young professionals to experienced team leaders. Engagement will be on a contract basis. Specific skill sets that we are looking for include:

- Experienced team leaders
- Experience in project and program management
- Strong capacity for design and implementation of successful projects and programs
- Humanitarian Aid expertise including technical expertise in the areas of food distribution, protection, WASH, community services, livelihoods and capacity building, reintegration, rapid appraisal, and related skills
- Capacity building with governments, multilateral, non-governmental, and civil society organizations (CSOs), demonstrating effective transfer of skills
- Monitoring & evaluation – both generalists and specific to areas such as gender, program and project management, and both sustainable development and humanitarian relief approaches with proven experience designing and implementing successful monitoring and evaluation programs
- Gender and SGBV specialists
- Broad knowledge of international law, refugee, and IDP issues
- Conflict prevention & resolution – as well as experience in above areas, within fragile and conflict affected environments
- International experience – including Africa and the broader global south
- Ability to work in a fast paced, high-stress environment
- Candidates who speak multiple languages are such as English, French, Tagalog, are needed
- Strong computer and technical skills preferred (MS Office suite, GIS, Internet Savvy, Social Media Knowledge, etc)

How to apply:

Applications should be sent to the Recruitment Team at recruitment@iedarelief.org

Recruitment is on a rolling basis. Due to the high number of applications only successful candidates will be contacted.